Heat From Cellphones Cause Diseases: Myth or Fact?

- According to the National Cancer Institute, radiofrequency causes cellphones to heat up. This heat can cause severe health issues.
- J type thermocouples used to measure temperature of cell phone and user’s face after a 5 min phone call.
- Tested for different models of cell phones. Results obtained were as follows:
  - Temperature changes were not statistically significant
  - Phones or face did not reach 44°C